

T U E S D A Y, OCTOBER 31, 1769.

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) SEPTEMBER 14.
LAST Friday Morning, about one o'Clock, came on at North-East a most dreadful Hurricane, attended with Rain, which came down in Torrents. It blew most violently from that Quarter until between 10 and 11 o'Clock, and then shifted to the North-West, when the Storm increased, and continued, without any Abatement, until about Dinner Time. The Damage done in the Country must be inconceivable, for the Corn is laid level with the Ground, and much of it destroyed; the Fodder is entirely gone. What Tobacco which was in the Fields is quite spoiled, and that in the Houses by their falling, and the Deluges of Rain which poured into them, greatly damaged, which may likewise be said of the Wheat. There was not a dry House in the Town that Day, many old Houses were blown down, and a Number of Trees. The Woods are entirely covered with fallen Trees, many of the largest Barks, which has blocked up the Roads, so that there is no travelling with Carriages. The farther up the Country the fiercer the Storm was, and most of the Mills are destroyed; upwards of 50 we hear between this and New-Castle.

From Hampton we hear that all the small Craft there is drove ashore; and Captain Fearon, from London, lying in the Road, was obliged to cut away his Main-mast, but rode out the Gale.

All the Shipping and small Vessels at Norfolk are aground, many of them dismasted; some of the Wharfs are gone, and others much damaged.

The Shipping, &c. at York, have suffered greatly. The Captains Lilly, Waterman, Eften, and Hubbard, were all driven ashore. The two first are unloading, and will be got off; the other two are already afloat, and have sustained little Damage. Captain Martin, for Bristol, was likewise driven ashore, but got off the same Day. Captain Banks for Liverpool, is ashore below Wormley's Creek, with 11 Feet Water in her Hold, and it is supposed cannot be got off. Captain Hamlin, lately arrived from London, cut away his Fore and Mizzen Masts, and was the only Vessel in York that rode out the Storm. The Sloop Nancy, Robertson, a light Vessel, was driven ashore below the Wharf. A light Sloop of Captain Whitten's sunk on Gloucester Point. Another Sloop, James Mudie, Master, for Lisbon, laden with Wheat, went ashore below Wormley's Creek, but is got off, with little Damage. Four Sea Vessels in Sarah's Creek opposite to York, were likewise drove ashore; one a Sloop, belonging to Captain Thompson, it is thought will not be got off. A Schooner belonging to the Eastern Shore, Hancock Jacobs, Master, loaded with Rum, is ashore on Colonel Digge's Marsh. A Sloop belonging to Mr. George Booth, with two Hogsheads of Tobacco on board, drove to Colonel Digge's Plantation, and stove to Pieces. The Top of the Wharf was carried away, and drove against Mr. Jones's Store, which saved that from being swept off likewise. All the Boats and Country Craft were driven ashore, and a Schooner, ran her Boltspirit into a Storehouse of Mr. Savage's. Several Chimnies, &c. in the Town were blown down, and the Wind-mill at Gloucester Town. A Man bringing his Family down the River, put them ashore at Mr. Foxe's; but going on board his Vessel again, to make her fast in a Creek, upon setting Sail she overtook, and he was drowned.

A Vessel from Norfolk, laden with Coal, for this City, was drove up to James-Town, and stove to Pieces. A Schooner of Major Travis's, lying before his House, was drove from her Anchors, and went ashore on the other Side. All the Vessels up James-River, as far as we have heard, are ashore likewise.

The Norfolk Packet was lying before Colonel Burwell's Ferry when the Storm happened. Her Skipper, when he found he could no longer stand it, slipped his Cable, and was drove by the North-East Wind several Miles up the River; but on the Wind chopping about to the North-West, he ran down to Norfolk in three Hours, under his bare Poles. The new Packet, on her way up, was drove ashore on Sewell's Point.

The James-River Post Boy, in his Way down, crossing a Swamp, was washed off his Horse by the Rapidity of the Current, but got hold of a Tree; and a Man hearing him call for Help, swam in to his Assistance, but could not get him out. He therefore went and swam in again, and tied a Cord round him, upon which he was drawn out.

The Bodies of three Negroes are come ashore a little below Lyon's Creek, with an Oar marked J. Goodrich, and a large open Flat is drifted ashore near the Mouth of the said Creek.

A Vessel from Madera, belonging to Philadelphia, is put into Hampton Road, with the Loss of two of her Masts, by the late Storm; and the Dolphin, belonging to Glasgow, bound for Delaware, with Salt, in Distress.

A Man from Edenton, in North-Carolina, says, that he thinks they had it rather worse there than in Virginia, by the Appearance of the Roads as he came along. All the Wharfs in that Town are demolished, many small Craft drove ashore, and several Houses thrown down.

PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER 28.

Saturday last the Brig Harmony, Captain Rodgers, arrived here from Lisbon, but last from Antigua. On the 6th Instant, in Lat. 25, he met with a very violent Gale of Wind, or rather Hurricane, which laid the Vessel on her Beam Ends for 4 Hours, and shifted his Hold, which obliged him to cut away his Main-mast, carried away the Rails and Stanchions of his Larboard Quarter, shipped a heavy Sea, that forced his Longboat out of the Chocks, and stove her, washed one of her Men overboard, who was drowned, and received considerable other Damage in his Sails and Rigging. On the 15th he spoke a Sloop, Captain Jacobs, from Rhode-Island for Hispaniola, who had lost all his Lumber, and split his Mainfall, in the above Gale, and was then standing for Rhode-Island, to refit; he informed Capt. Rodgers, he spoke a Schooner, that had lost her Mainmast; and on the 15th, about 30 Leagues from the Land, he spoke with Captain Barry, from this Harbour, for Barbados, all well.

By Captain Caton, from Cape Nicholas, we learn, that on the 6th Inst. off the East End of Hentago, he spoke the Brig John, Captain Grebble, of this Port, for Georgia, from Jamaica, 29 Days out, all well. The same Day he saw a Ship, which he took to be a Frenchman, go ashore on a small Key, about 3 or 4 Miles to the Eastward of the Grand Caicos; on the 18th, in Lat. 36.7, Long. 73.30, spoke a Schooner from Virginia for Jamaica, three Days out, all well; and the next Day he spoke a small Schooner from Port-au-Pee, for Rhode-Island, out of which he took William White, one of our Pilots, who informs, that on the 8th Instant, being at Anchor in our Bay in the Schooner Ranger, Captain Pridden, bound to Providence from this Place, about One o'Clock the Wind shifted to the Westward, they parted one of their Cables, the Vessel then lying on her Beam Ends, dragging the other Anchor, they were obliged to cut away her Main-mast, when she righted; they then cut the other Cable, and scudded out to Sea before the Wind; that the next Day, when the Gale abated, they came across a Sloop, that had been driven out of Sinepuxent, with three Men on board, one of whom, in diving over the Bar, was knocked overboard, and drowned; that the Sloop being full of Water, they took out some of her Sails, and running Rigging, with the two Men, and left her; that two Days afterwards, as they were scudding under a double reefed Foresail, a Sea struck the Schooner, carried every Thing off the Deck, and washed one Man overboard, but he luckily was thrown on board again; that on the 13th they spoke the above Schooner, for Rhode-Island, when he and the two Men went on board her, but afterwards meeting with Captain Caton, he got on board him, with whom he came to Town.

Captain Blewer, from South-Carolina, on the 8th Instant, in Lat. 34, 20, being in 16 Fathom Water, had the Gale very violent for about 16 Hours, which shifted his Cargo, washed his Jibb away from the Bowspirit, carried away his Gaff, and Jibb-Boom, broke the Head of his Rudder, split his Mainfall all to Pieces, carried away every Thing off his Deck, except the Boat, and washed one of his Men overboard, who was drowned.

On Tuesday last Captain Benjamin Amory, late of the Sloop Mary, bound from this Port for St. Christophers, arrived here, and informs, that he left our Capes on Thursday the 7th Inst. that the next Morning, about 4 o'Clock, the Gale came on at E. S. E. and continued till 3 in the Afternoon, when the Wind shifted to W. N. W. and increased to a mere Hurricane; that about 4 o'Clock he scudded away from the Shore till 10, then hove too, and the next Morning he scudded again; that on the 11th, in Lat. 34, being in the Gulf Stream, the Wind blowing very hard at E. S. E. caused a prodigious high Sea, whereby the Vessel was overfet, and turned Bottom upwards, when two of his Negroes were drowned; that himself, his Mate, one white Man and two Negroes, got on the Wreck, and after some Time cut the Laniards of her Showers, when the Mast went away, and she righted; they then got on the Deck, and lashed themselves to the Pumps, to prevent their being washed away, and continued in this Condition for 7 Days, enduring the greatest Hardships, till they were quite worn out with Fatigue, when providentially they met with Captain Shoals, in a Sloop from the Grenades for New-York, who took them all on board, and used them very kindly, and on Sunday last put them on board a Pilot Boat, off our Capes, in which they came to Town. Captain Amory, for three Days before he left the Wreck, was so weak, and burnt with the Sun, that he had not Strength to go to the Water-Cask for Drink, and they having nothing to drink out of, one of his Negroes supplied him out of his Mouth, by carrying a Mouthful at a Time, and he subsisted chiefly upon a Spermaceti Candle, his People being more hearty, eat raw Meat, but their Bread was all spoiled.

From Great Egg-Harbour we learn, that on the 11th Instant, the Wreck of a small Sloop came ashore there, with her Mast and Rigging hanging to her; her Quarter stove in, 7 Barrels of Hogs Lard, and some Pork, were found in her, and she appeared to have been loaded with Wheat, no Person on board, nor Papers to be found; it is thought the People had been put to great Straits, having cut up their Blankets to caulk the Decks. It is also said some Tobacco in Barrels were found on the Shore.

On Thursday last were tried at Rafton, in the County of Northampton, a Number of People, who came from the Colony of Connecticut, and were convicted of a Riot, in taking Possession of a Tract of Land in this Province, on Lahawannack, above Wyoming. The Verdict of the Jury was founded on these Facts: Some Time about the 10th of February last, a few of the Defendants came to Wyoming under Arms, and were taken by the Sheriff; but upon their Promise to quit their Design, they were suffered to return Home; however, in about a Month's Time they returned with a larger Number, built a strong Block House at Lahawannack, and declared they were determined to defend their Possession to the last. Upon hearing of their Return, several Justices, with the Sheriff, and a Number of Pennsylvanians went up to the Block House, in order to arrest them; they at first refused to surrender, saying, they would defend themselves till Death, but after some Time, on the Mediation of one Isaac Trip, a Quaker, they were prevailed on to surrender, and by this Means the shedding of Blood was happily prevented.

OCTOBER 5. Captain Sherman, from Georgia, informs, that on the 9th ult. the Day after he left that Place, he met with a very hard Gale of Wind, from E. to N. E. which continued till the 13th, when he made the Land to the Southward of St. Augustine, and had the Gale continued 4 Hours longer, his Vessel, with 8 or 9 Sail more, must inevitably have been drove ashore.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, September 9, 1769.

Last Sunday, in the Afternoon, a Council was held in the Governor's House, between the Commanding Officer and sundry Chiefs of different Nations of Indians, on the late Murder of an Indian at Pittsburgh by Cornelius Dougherty. As there had been, some Time before, a white Man killed by an Indian, there was but little said on either Side, only advising each other to keep fast Hold of the Chain of Friendship, and giving some Tobacco and Provisions, which the Indians very readily accepted of. This Afternoon one David Owens brought a white Man from Cheat River, who was one of the Party that murdered an Indian, and two Children, in the Indian's Hunting Cabin, in the Forks of Cheat River. This Murder, so immediately after the Council was held, will, no Doubt, create Uneasiness in the Minds of the Indians, the Delaware Nation in particular, as the Persons murdered were of that Tribe: The Man is now confined in our Guard-House.

Extract of a Letter from Carlisle, dated September 24, 1769.

On the 22d Instant James Smith, an Inhabitant of the upper Part of this County, was committed to Goal, for the Murder of a certain John Johnston, which happened on the 20th Inst. near Bedford, and for Particulars refer you to the inclosed Depositions. Yesterday Morning, to our great Astonishment, we had Intelligence that a large Party of armed and disguised Men, were within ten Miles of this Town, in order to take the Prisoner out of this Goal, alleging that we would send him to Philadelphia, to take his Trial. Upon this Notice, John Armstrong, and John Montgomery, Esquires, and the Rev. Mr. John Steel, rode out to meet them, while sundry of the Magistrates assisted the Sheriffs in raising a Guard to defend the Goal; and accordingly met them, blacked, and armed with Rifle Guns, and prevailed with them to stop and converse on the Subject of their present Intention.

The Result of the Conversation was, that two Persons (who had not blacked themselves yet, came down from the Neighbourhood of the others) should be admitted to see the Prisoner, and bring a Letter from his own Hairs, shewing whether he chose to stand his Trial, or to go with them; which Expedition was granted them, only to prevent the Effusion of Blood, together with Assurance, that Smith would receive his Trial in the County. They farther insisted, that Ball should be taken, saying, that several of the best Freeholders of that Part of the County, would enter his Bail, swearing, as a few of them did, in an outrageous Manner, that if that Request was not complied with, their Fire Arms should be his Bail. To this it was replied, that the Magistrates here had not that Power, but would represent the Matter to the Governor and Chief Justice, provided the Persons they mentioned would request it, and enter for him. Accordingly the Prisoner sent them a candid Letter, declaring his Desire to have a Trial by the Laws of his Country, begging them to return Home, &c.

Notwithstanding this, they rushed into Town, and coming to the Goal Door, which was properly secured, and a Guard within, and armed Men in sundry private Houses; the Prisoner extended his Hands as far as he could through the Windows, and begged them, in a solemn Manner, to return, and to shed no innocent Blood; which, together with the Exortions of the Magistrates, prevailed with them to go off. As we expected, they tarried near the Town all Night, and appeared to set off about Day-break; but finding their Numbers increasing, it is thought they design a vigorous Attack. They have Spies on every Road, and we look for them every Moment, being assured, that as soon as they think themselves strong enough, they will return.

We have Accounts of a large Number coming from Potowmack, and look for no other Terms from them, than to deliver up the Prisoner, or have the Town, at least some Houses near the Prison, burnt to Ashes. We are in great Confusion, but yet determined to defend the Goal to the last Extremity, and no Measures have been left unimproved; nor can we think of any, farther than that of admitting Bail, which we can by no Means do, only thus represent the Situation we are in.

Sundry People have joined the Rioters (not blacked) but whether to Influence their Return, or otherwise, we cannot yet learn. We have no other Method of hiring the Prison Guard, purchasing Ammunition, or paying Expresses, but on the Credit of a few Persons, which Expence will, but too probably, be requisite for a considerable Time, of which we hope to be relieved by the Honourable the House of Assembly.

We are greatly assisted by sundry Gentlemen in Town, and a Number of the good Inhabitants, who exert themselves in a spirited and becoming Manner. We just now learn that the Rioters are about 6 Miles from hence, apparently moving homewards, which we have some Expectations they will do, unless reinforced by a considerable Number.

Since receiving the above, we are assured, from good Information, that the Numbers of the Rioters have increased to 150, they had returned within a few Miles of Carlisle; hearing of the Reception they were likely to meet with, from the Inhabitants being well prepared for them, and the Persuasion of some well disposed Persons, they went off.

Tuesday last arrived here the Brig Georgia Packet, Captain Bridges, from Georgia, by whom we learn, that the Storm of the 8th did not reach so far as that Place, but on the contrary it was very fine Weather. On his Passage the 22d ult. in Lat. 33, and 30 Fathom Water, he spoke the Schooner Dolphin, Capt. William Lake, from Rhode Island for South-Carolina, out 27 Days; he had been drove as far as the Bahama Banks, in the Storm of the 8th ult. was laid on his Beam Ends for an Hour, and had lost his Mainmast, Boom and Mainfall, but was otherwise well, and wanted nothing.

Last Thursday the Race began on the Center Course, in this City, when the following Horses started for the £. 100 Purse, viz.

Mr. De Lancey's bay Horse Lath, six Years old,	1	2
Mr. McGill's bay Horse Nonpareil, five Years old,	3	3
Governor Sharpe's grey Mare Britannia, 5 Years old,	2	3
Dr. Tidmarsh's grey Horse Northumberland, aged,	4	dr.

It is supposed that there would have been more Diversion, had not Nonpareil's Rider lost his Whip in the second Heat.

N E W Y O R K, OCTOBER 2.

The Schooner, ----- Captain Newton, arrived here last Sunday Week from New-Providence: He was in the Storm of the 7th and 8th ult. in which he lost one of his Men, named George Saunders, his Mainmast, Boom, Boat, Anchors, Cables and Jibb, all his small Sails and Spars, and about 40 Turt.

OCTOBER 9. On Saturday last his Majesty's Commissioners appointed under the Great Seal of Great-Britain, for settling the Boundary Line between this Colony and New-Jersey, pronounced their Decree. The Commission was opened on the 18th Day of July last, by the following Gentlemen, to wit, CHARLES STUART, Esq. President.

Andrew Elliot, Esq.	Charles Morris, Esq.
Samuel Holland, Esq.	Payson Randolph, Esq. and
Andrew Oliver, Esq.	Jared Ingersoll, Esq.

Some Time before the Decree was given, Mr. Randolph was called away by necessary Avocations of a public Nature. The Decree was pronounced by four of the remaining Commissioners, to wit, Mr. President, Mr. Elliot, Mr. Oliver, Mr. Ingersoll; who determined "The Boundary Partition Line between the two Colonies to be a direct and straight Line from the Fork "at the Mouth of Mahacamack River, formed by its Junction "with the River called Delaware, (as they term it) or the Fifth "Kill, in the Latitude of 41. 21, and 37, to the Latitude of 42 "on Hudson's River, found by their Surveyors to be at a marked "Rock on the West Side of Hudson's River, 79 Chains 27 Links "to the Southward, on a Meridian from Sneydon's House, formerly Corbet's."

Tho' by this Decree the Court House and Church in Orange Town, is left a few Rods to the Northward of the Line decreed; yet upwards of 150 Families, settled in that ancient County Town, will, if the Decree be confirmed, be dismembered from this Colony, and exposed to utter Ruin.

Influenced by this Consideration, and a Regard to the Royal Commission, which authorized the Commissioners to settle the Boundary Line, upon Principles of Justice and Equity, Samuel Holland and Charles Morris, Esqrs. dissented from the Decree of the Court; and by their Dissent, which was entered in the Records of the Court, immediately following the Decree, they, in Substance, declare it, among other Things, as their Opinion, "That a Line from the Station on Hudson's River, which in the Year 1686, was solemnly fixed by the several Governments, as the Partition Point on Hudson's River to the Mouth of Mahacamack, would be now conformable to the ancient Grants, Jurisdiction and Possessions of both Colonies; and therefore more agreeable to his Majesty's benign Intentions, in directing the Boundary Line to be settled upon Principles of Justice and Equity."

As by the above mentioned Decree, his Majesty's Interest, to the Amount of many Hundred Thousand Acres of Land, and a vast Number of ancient Possessions held by Patents under this Colony, are totally ceded to New-Jersey, and the ancient Jurisdiction of this Colony greatly encroached on, the Agents on the Part of New-York conceiving it to be their Duty to appeal from the Decree, immediately after the same was pronounced, tendered to the Court their Appeal to his Majesty in Privy Council; and prayed that it might be entered, and the Proceedings forthwith transmitted. But, tho' the Court permitted it to be entered, they refused to receive it as an Appeal, conceiving that by the Terms of the Royal Commission, they were not at Liberty to receive an Appeal, till after the Expiration of two Months, from the Time of pronouncing the Decree: And for this Purpose they adjourned, to meet at Hartford, in Connecticut, on the 8th Day of December next.

Friday the 29th ult. being the day appointed by the Charter of this City, for the Nomination and Election of Officers of the Corporation for the Year ensuing, when the following Gentlemen were nominated and chosen, viz. Whitehead Hicks, Esq; Mayor, Francis Filkin, George Brewerton, Benjamin Blagge, Elias Dittross, Andrew Gaudier, Abraham P. Lott, and John Duykman, Esqrs. Aldermen; Jacob Brewerton, Matthew Buys, John Abel, Benjamin Huggit, James Van Vark, Peter T. Curtenius, and Hubert Van Wagenan, Gentlemen, Assistants: John Roberts, Esq; High Sheriff, Thomas Shrove, Coroner.

L O N D O N, JULY 24.
ON Wednesday died in Sandgate, in Northumberland, William Wood, aged 113. He was formerly a keelman, but was bed-ridden for the last five years. His brother died at Newcastle, about nine years ago, aged 110.

A fine large marble tomb-stone, elegantly finished, is erected over the grave of Mr. Allen, junior, in the Church-yard of St. Mary Newington, in Surry; it hath been placed twice before, but taken away on account of some disputed points. On the sides are the following inscriptions:

NORTH-SIDE.
Sacred to the Memory of

WILLIAM ALLEN,
An Englishman of unsporting Life and amiable Disposition, [Who was inhumanly murdered near St. George's Fields, the 10th Day of May, 1768, by a Scottish Detachment from the Army.]

His disconsolate Parents, Inhabitants of this Parish, caused this Tomb to be erected to an only Son, lost to them and to the World, in his Twentieth Year, as a Monument of his Virtues and their Affection.

SOUTH-SIDE.
O disembody'd Soul! most rudely driven
From this low Orb (our sinful Seat) to Heaven,
While Filial Piety can please the Ear,
Thy Name will still occur for ever dear:
This very Spot, now humania'd shall crave
From all a Tear of Pity on thy Grave.
O Flow'rs of Flow'rs, which we shall see no more,
No kind returning Spring can these restore;
Thy Loss thy hapless Countrymen deplore.

EAST-SIDE.
O, Earth! Cover not now my Blood. Job xvi. 13.

WEST-SIDE.
Take away the Wicked from before the King, and his Throne shall be established in Righteousness. Prov. xxiii. 5.

N. B. A white wash is put over these lines between the crotchets.

From the MIDDLESEX JOURNAL, of AUGUST 3.
M----- Paragraphs, only to serve a present Purpose, and amuse the People.

A Pardon for Mr. Wilkes.---He does not want nor desire one. A new Ministry.---It must be a very moody One;---none of the real great Friends of the Constitution, and their much injured, abused Country, will ever join with any of those who have so long meditated the Ruin of both.

Repeal of the late Taxes in America.---The Americans well remember, that to appease them for a short Time, they repealed the odious Stamp-Act, and soon laid a much heavier One; the same Men will most certainly play the same Game. They may repeal the late Tax, and lay on another still more grievous.

The Thane artfully throws out such Insinuations to quiet the People; but till there is a Change of Men and Measures, and an honest unbiassed and uncorrupt Government, the Nation can never hope for the Restoration of their ancient Laws, Liberties and Constitutions.

One Design of the Thane and his present odious M-----y, is to preserve themselves from the Rage of an incensed People, which they have great Reason to apprehend.---The next is to stop Petitions of Grievances, which it is not in their Power to do, though every Art has been tried in vain; and when they are neither to be bribed nor intimidated, they are cajoling, and insinuating palliative Measures, they never intend to pursue.

Let the honest Sense of Millions be laid dutifully before our gracious Monarch, who will easily distinguish between the late flattering Addresses, corruptly procured by the Tools of the M-----y, and the honest Petitions of 99 in an Hundred, groaning under unupportable Grievances; the Loss of their Trade, and the Loss of their most essential Liberties.

The People of England patiently suffer a long Time; but when thoroughly roused, have always got the better of a bad M-----y, especially when they openly attempt their sacred Birthrights, and Freedom of Election of their Members, who are their Servants, and answerable to them for the Breaches of the Trust reposed in them.

These are the Sentiments of all the honest independent Freeholders in England and Wales, and who are determined to support their ancient Laws, MAGNA CHARTA, and the Bill of Rights.

A few Days ago an Emetic was administered to the Right Hon. Lord H-----d, and, to the Surprise of all present, he cast up One Million Sterling. His Physicians order the Emetic to be continued every Month, till December 1772, when Forty Millions, at present unaccounted for, will be returned without Interest.

William Rollo, found guilty of receiving stolen Leather. Fined £. 10, Proclamation-Money.

The Sentences were passed at an Adjournment of the said Court on Wednesday last.

Sunday the 22d Instant, the Schooner Nancy, David Walker, Master, arrived here from New-Providence, having been blown off the Coast, by a hard Gale of Wind, on the 22d of September, on his Passage from hence for Winyah.---He has brought with him from thence Captain Daniel Sinclair, late Master of the Schooner Sufannah, of and from Georgia for Jamaica, (with all his Crew and Passengers) who was cast-away on the 25th inst. on a Reef off Eleuthera. The Sufannah was laden with Horses and Lumber, had more than violent Gale of Wind from the Time she left Savannah to the Day she was lost, and immediately on striking, bent of her Keel and broke her Rudder, so that in two Hours after she filled and went to Pieces. Captain Sinclair saw several Vessels, which appeared to be in Distress, but spoke none, and says some have put into New-Providence.

Several small Vessels are taken up, to carry the 21st Regiment from hence to St. Augustine, and to bring the 9th from thence.---They will sail the first fair Wind.

On Tuesday last there was a Meeting of the General Committee; in Consequence of which, we hear, no tanned Leather will be exported for some Months, as we are to expect no more Saddle or Shoes from England, besides what were ordered before the 23d of July last, till the American Revenue Acts are repealed. The next Meeting of said Committee will be on Tuesday the 7th of November.---The Day to which the General Assembly of this Province stands prorogued.

Saturday last the Sloop Sally, Captain Blower, arrived here from Philadelphia, in whom came Passengers, Robert Raper, Esq; Mr. William Anceum, Merchant, and sundry others.

The Schooner Sally, William Blythe, Master, who sailed from hence on the 1st ult. for Philadelphia, arrived there on the 15th Instant, after a very disagreeable Passage of 15 Days, having lost her Rudder, best Bower Anchor and Cable, two of her Shrouds, and damaged all her standing Sails, &c. in the late Storm.

Last Night the Ship Heart-of-Oak, Henry Gunn, Master, arrived here from London, by whom we have received Papers to the 23d of August but they contain nothing very material.---In this Vessel came Mr. Nicholas Langford, Bookbinder, and some other Passengers.

On Saturday the 23th Instant died, at his Plantation in St. John's Parish, Dr. MATTHEW HARDY; whose Death is lamented by all that had the Pleasure of being acquainted with him.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 2.

A Letter from Rhode-Island by the last post says, We have reduced our Custom-House officers to the table of fees established by a law of this province, and have commenced some actions for exorbitant demands. Our collector is (I suppose) now at Boston, consulting the oracles: if you happen to become acquainted with him, you'll easily perceive him to be no conjurer by his conduct, he appears to have been under the tuition and guidance of our old friend Shan Ap Morgan, and with the assistance of Mr. Beals, he comes on very fast in a good way. Master Shan is prudent in keeping the ninety hammer under his wing—his, and Beals, might, and we suppose will, by accident or design, soon make some curious discovery of old affairs. M—com intends giving a public breakfast as soon as he can get his gardens in order. We hear it is the high taste at Boston.

As money is scarce at Bermuda, we hear the commissioners have lately had a large remittance of TURTLE from that island, some of which they dressed last week in this town; and tho' many invitations were given out to the royal repast, we hear that excepting the PENSIONED HYPOCRITE, that great friend to his country, not an American appeared to regale of their dainties.

Messieurs EDES and GILL.

THREE out of four RESPECTABLE ADM—TY judges upon the new establishment of six hundred a year, are now in this town, and have been in, and about it, almost ever since their appointment, except a visit of about 48 hours to Halifax, to appoint a DEPUTY (at an easy lay there) and another a visit to South-Carolina, for the same purpose. Is it not sufficient that our property is to be determined by a single judge, not altogether the highest in our esteem, and (as 'tis said) his salary to be paid out of the produce of condemnations? but, that single judge, is to depose such persons as he pleases to hold courts, and pass judgement upon the property of English subjects in North-America. How such deputies are paid by their principals, and what claims they are to have for administering justice, is best known to themselves. Mr. John M—m may possibly be deputed for Rhode-Island, as 'tis likely he may do it upon an easy lay.

SULLY.

The selectmen of this town having received authentic copies of letters wrote to the Right Hon. the Earl of Hillsborough, by Governor Bernard, General Gage, Commodore Hood, and others, together with several memorials of the commissioners of the customs: in all which the character and interest of the town appear to be greatly assailed and injured. They have therefore issued notifications for the inhabitants thereof to meet at Faneuil-Hall on Wednesday next, at ten o'clock in the morning, to consider what steps are proper to be taken thereon, &c.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of undoubted credit in London, to his friend in this town, dated July 13, 1769.

"I am honoured with your's of May 10th, and agree with you perfectly in your sentiments of public affairs. Government here seems now to be growing more moderate in regard to America; and I am persuaded that by a steady prudent conduct, we shall finally obtain all our important points, and establish American liberty on a clear and firmer foundation. The folly of the late measures begin to be seen and understood at court, their promoters growing out of credit, and the trading part of the nation, with the manufacturers, are become sensible how necessary it is for their welfare to be on good terms with us. The petitioners of Middlesex and London have numbered among their grievances the unconstitutional taxes on America; and similar petitions are expected from all quarters; so that I think we need only be quiet and persevere in our schemes of frugality and industry, and the rest will do itself. Your governor is recalled, and the commissioners will follow soon, or be remodelled with some men of discretion among them."

It has from it from undoubted Authority, that Mrs. Wales, the wife of Nathaniel Wales, Esq; of Windham, in Connecticut, the last season raised six thousand silk balls from one Mulberry tree only.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 5.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, dated September 25. Last night arrived a vessel from Pool, laden chiefly with goods, as I am told, consigned to the Captain, who says, he will contrary to any resolves among the merchants here, land and dispose of said goods to best advantage. None are yet come on shore, being closely watched by the Sons of Liberty."

Extract of another Letter from New-York, September 24. On Tuesday last Mr. T. R—son mounted the Rostrum, facing liberty pole in the fields, and made his public acknowledgment. He is a Jeweller from England, with about £300 sterling in trinkets, &c. but he hath been obliged to consent to store them under the care of the committee.

It is reported here; that all intercourse with Rhode-Island is nearly shut up, as if the Plague was there, as we will neither sell them, or ship them any goods, nor receive any from thence, nor suffer them to sell any in this province."

It is said, that at Philadelphia, they propose to have no intercourse in trade with Rhode-Island.

A meeting of the freeholders, and other inhabitants of the town of Boston, legally assembled at Faneuil-Hall on Wednesday the 4th of October, 1769.

The Hon. Thomas Cushing, Esq; Moderator.

GRÉABLE to the notification of the selectmen, it was ordered, that the authentic copies of the several letters, memorials, &c. wrote by Gov. Bernard, Commodore Hood, the Commissioners of the Customs, and others, to the Ministry, which were laid before the parliament, and transmitted to the selectmen by William Bollar, Esq; be read, so far as they related to this town: And they were read accordingly.

A motion was thereupon made, and it was unanimously voted that the thanks of the town be and hereby are given to William Bollar, Esq; for his generous care in transmitting to the selectmen, authentic copies of letters wrote to his Majesty's ministers of state, by Governor Bernard, General Gage, Commodore Hood, and others, and also of several memorials of the Commissioners of the Customs in America. In which letters and memorials the disposition and conduct of the inhabitants of the town have been grossly misrepresented to our Sovereign, in consequence whereof they have been sensibly affected with the marks of his Majesty's displeasure—and that the moderator be directed to transmit this vote of thanks to Mr. Bollar, for so seasonable and important a service.

It was also unanimously voted, that the hon. Thomas Cushing, Esq; the hon. James Otis, Esq; Dr. Joseph Warren, Richard Dana, Esq; Joshua Hendraw, Esq; Joseph Jackson, Esq; and Benjamin Kent, Esq; be and hereby are appointed a committee to consider what measures are proper to be taken, to vindicate the character of the town from the false and injurious representations contained in the letters and memorials aforesaid, and report at the adjournment of this meeting.

After which, upon a motion made, the following vote was unanimously passed.

THE merchants, not only of this metropolis, but through the continent, having nobly preferred the public good to their own private emolument: And with a view to obtain a redress of the grievances so loudly and justly complained of, having almost unanimously engaged to suspend their importations from Great-Britain: A measure approved by all orders, as legal, peaceable, and most likely of all others to effect the salutary design in view; and which will be regarded by posterity with veneration, for the disinterested, and truly public spirit appearing in it: The town cannot but express their astonishment and indignation, that any of the Citizens should be so left to the feelings of patriotism and the common interest, and so thoroughly and infamously selfish, as to obstruct this very measure, by continuing their importations. Be it therefore solemnly voted, that the names of those persons—few indeed, to the honour of the town, viz. John Bernard, Nathaniel Rogers, Theophilus

Lillie, James McMaisters and company, John Mein, Thomas Hutchinson, jun. and Elisha Hutchinson, be entered on the records of this town, that posterity may know, who those persons were that preferred their little private advantage to the common interest of all the colonies in a point of the greatest importance; who not only deserted, but opposed their country, in a struggle for the rights of the constitution, that must ever do it honour; and who, with a design to enrich themselves, basely took advantage of the generous self-denial of their fellow citizens for the common good.

Ordered, that the foregoing votes be printed in the several public News-papers.

Then the meeting was adjourned to Wednesday, the 18th inst. at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

Attest. WILLIAM COOPER, Town Clerk.

Notwithstanding the above meeting was so full a one, the merchants of the town were, during the whole time, at the Representatives Chamber, on business of importance which concerned the general cause.

Tuesday morning last arrived the brig Wolf, Capt. Bryant, from London, which he left the 28th of July last. In the Brig came Passengers, Samuel Venner, Esq; late Secretary to the Board of Commissioners, Capt. Lyde, Capt. Coppinger, Mr. Patrick Smith, a merchant from London, and several others, among whom were one or two hatters and jewellers.

Capt. Bryant spoke off Cape Sables with the Elizabeth, from Cork for Philadelphia, all well.

On the arrival of the above vessel, a meeting of the merchants was immediately called, and the following transactions voted to be published.

THE merchants of this town, met at Faneuil-Hall, on the third of October instant, and being informed that Mr. Patrick Smith, a stranger from London, had imported a quantity of goods in the brig Wolf, John Bryant, Master, and considering that in case strangers might import goods, while the merchants were obligated not to import any, it would have a direct tendency to frustrate the design of their agreement, and so be attended with fatal consequences, they appointed a committee to apply to Mr. Smith, and desire his attendance, who accordingly attended and signed an agreement to reship his goods for London, a copy of which is hereafter inserted: Capt. Nathaniel Byfield Lyde, and Mr. Colburn Barrel, also appeared at the meeting and signed similar agreements, which are also inserted below.

And at a meeting of the merchants the fourth instant, a gentleman appeared, and at the request of Thomas and Elisha Hutchinson, informed the merchants that they were ready to treat with them with respect to the goods they had imported; upon which a committee was appointed to hear their proposals: The committee accordingly had a conference with them, and reported that they had acceded to every article of the agreement of the merchants, and had engaged to deliver up the eighteen chests of tea, they imported in Capt. Bryant; as also any other goods that they might receive by any other vessel. The Committee also reported, that Mr. Theophilus Lillie met them, and acceded to the agreement, and entered into similar engagements.

Which report was accepted.

The merchants sent a message to Nathaniel Rogers, John Bernard, and James McMaister, requesting their attendance at the meeting at half after three o'clock, P. M. Their several answers were highly insolent, and justly deserving of censure, particularly the answer received from James McMaisters, who refused to attend, and told Mr. Gore and Mr. Freeman, that the merchants might do as they pleased, that he found they intended to make a riot, which he should be glad to see!

Voted unanimously, That these several persons be continuing their importations from time to time, contrary to the laws of the trade, notwithstanding the pains that has been taken to prevail with them to accede to the agreement, have discovered a bare attachment to their own little private interests, and a total disregard to that of the public: It appears they have had a settled design to counteract and defeat the generous efforts of the merchants, and have acted altogether unbecomingly the character of good Citizens, and therefore are not only unworthy of the countenance and favour of the public in any respect, but by this their conduct have rendered themselves justly obnoxious to all who have any regard for the welfare of their country.

Voted, That the committee of inspection be and hereby are desired to make strict inquiry after such persons as may hereafter purchase goods of those who continue to import from Great-Britain contrary to the agreement of the merchants, and publish their names in the news-papers.

Voted unanimously, That the conduct of the standing committee is highly worthy of our approbation, and we accordingly approve of it in every instance, especially in the fair, just and impartial account which they published the 28th of August last, relative to such goods as have been imported from Great-Britain since the agreement of non-importation has taken place, in answer to the fallacious and scandalous assertions of one John Mein, in his many scurrilous and abusive publications.

WHEREAS I the subscriber have imported a quantity of goods, consisting of twenty eight bales and cases, in the Brigantine Wolf, from London, and I find since my arrival, that it will greatly interfere with, and have a tendency to defeat the good intentions of the merchants of this place, in their agreement of non-importation, and gives great uneasiness to the people of this place; I hereby promise and engage to reship the said goods to London, by the first vessel that will take freight for said place, provided the charge of reshipping and insurance of the same be borne by the merchants here, as well as my passage back.

Boston, Oct. 3, 1769.

PATRICK SMITH.

WHEREAS I the subscriber have imported a quantity of goods, consisting of four cases, in the Brigantine Wolf, from London; and I find since my arrival, that it will greatly interfere with, and have a tendency to defeat the good intentions of the merchants of this place, in their agreement of non-importation, and gives great uneasiness to the people of this place; I hereby promise and engage to reship the said goods to London, by the first vessel that will take freight for said place, provided the charge of reshipping, insurance and freight of the same, be borne by the merchants.

Boston, Oct. 3, 1769.

NATH. BYFIELD LYDE.

WHEREAS I the subscriber have a parcel of goods contained in six trunks, eight cases, per the brigantine Wolf, consigned to me from London; I hereby promise and engage to reship the said goods to London by the first vessel that will take freight for said place, provided the charge of reshipping, insurance and freight for the same, be borne by the merchants, and also indemnify me from any charges that may arise on said goods here from this time.

COLBURN BARREL.

We hear the merchants here propose that if the Rhode-Island merchants do not come into an agreement for non-importation of goods from Great-Britain, they will treat them as those at New-York and Philadelphia have done, and inform their correspondents in London, that if they ship goods for Newport or Providence, they will change their correspondents.

It is also proposed, that an agreement be signed by the owners of vessels, gone and going for London, to give their masters orders in writing, not to take on board any goods except what is allowed of by the merchants here, until the revenue acts are repealed.

It is likewise proposed that an agreement be subscribed to, as has been in Philadelphia and New-York, to extend their non-importation until the revenue acts are repealed.

A day or two ago one of the importers sent a trunk of goods to go to Old-York by Captain Winn, who inquiring of the servant from whence they came, and being informed, the Captain refused to take it on board, and sent the servant back with the goods. Some altercation ensued between the merchant and Captain; but the goods were not taken on board.

We hear that two Strangers who imported three boxes of linens from Philadelphia in Captain Gorham, have agreed to reship them by the first vessel that sails for that port.

NEW-HAVEN, September 17.

I Adonijah Thomas, of the town of New-Haven, and parish of West-Haven, do in the presence of the gentlemen merchants, and inhabitants of the trading town of said New-Haven, humbly acknowledge that I have attempted to inform against Mr. Timothy Jones, junior, for running of goods, for which I now humbly beg pardon of the whole inhabitants of this colony, and this town in particular; and hope the said inhabitants will receive me into their former favour and esteem: And acknowledge that my punishment is far less than the demerit of my heinous crime deserves.

ADONIJAH THOMAS.

This confession being published, the inhabitants in general, forgave the informer, and dispersed, without the least disorder, having first declared, that whoever attempts to do the like, or to support or encourage any of those mean wretches, who may be hardy enough to attempt any thing of the like nature, that they may expect to receive a reward adequate to their crimes.

SEPTEMBER 29. Last Saturday morning at 6 o'clock departed this life, in the sixty-sixth year of her age, Mrs. Mary Clap, relict of the late Rev. President Clap, and on Monday her remains were decently interred.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 9.

To the respectable PUBLIC.

WHEREAS on the arrival of Capt. Spicer in a Brig from Hull, some goods were landed, and Josiah Short Vavasor, objected thereto, Capt. Spicer and Vavasor had harsh words, which next day was compromised, and in company Capt. Spicer declared himself, as in the following affidavit, which when reported by Vavasor and Waldron, was, by some of the committee of merchants in this city, said to be a falsehood, and we the subscribers think we are bound to justify ourselves on oath, as follow.

City of New-York, &c.

JOSIAS SHORT VAVASOR, and Adolph Waldron, being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, depose and say, that on Saturday the 2d instant, being at the house of the said Adolph Waldron, Captain Spicer, master of a Brig from Hull, came into the room, who said, (after some discourse had passed) that the goods brought on board his Brig, was only a cloak, and to open the door for the goods on board the Ship Hope, Captain De Peyffer; and if it had not been for the goods on board the Hope, he would not be allowed to land one single bale, and further, if Mr. Thomas Franklin did not receive the goods, he, the said Captain Spicer was to proceed with them to Philadelphia, and if not taken there, to carry them to Baltimore in Maryland, and if not allowed to land them there, to proceed back to Hull, with the vessel and cargo; and putting his hand into his pocket, drew out a paper, and said in that paper, was the names of four of the committee of merchants in this city, who was concerned in the lading of the Ship Hope, "which paper was you to see, would set you all by the ears;" and further these deponents say not.

JOSIAS S. VAVASOR, ADOLPH WALDRON.

Sworn before me this 27th Day of September, 1769.

WHITEHEAD HICKS.

Extract of a letter from a merchant in Edinburgh, to a gentleman in this city.

"I am sorry from the heart, to read of your Americans attachment to Wilkes, that son of Belial; some colonies sending him presents, others inviting him to reside among you (as our news-papers say) and sure I am; should he ever come your way, he would sling fire brands, arrows and death all round you. No nation ever had a more mild government; nor enjoyed a King so deserving as his present Majesty; and scarce one worse used. I am told to day, that Wilkes's party had the impudence to attack him in his coach lately, as he was coming from the play-house; and gave him abusive language, so that he was obliged to seek shelter from his guards. Your tempers, I own, have been ruffled; but the colonies are overgrown, riches beget pride and luxury, fatal to cities and empires. Your people cannot well want our aid, tho' I own they can do it better, than we can want theirs. But were you to hear the mournful complaints of tradesmen and merchants here, how your heart would feel for them. I lately saw many vessels at London advertised, that could not by any means procure a freight, your folks having entered into a concert against importation of goods from us; these measures, alas, we will soon feel to our loss."

A N S W E R.

"As to Wilkes, I never knew one colony send him a present, nor any one man doing it; we can hardly pay Britain our debts; nor was he ever invited here: I often heard gentlemen talk of him here with disdain, as a very profane man, tho' he espoused the cause of liberty, which is in itself glorious. And tho' I think his Majesty had no manner of business at the play-house, but had been much better in his closet, praying and contriving good answers to the just petitions of America, London and Middlesex; yet very sorry am I to hear of his being attacked by a mob; it shocks me indeed. You say, our tempers your own have been ruffled; yes, and our purses have been both ruffled and rifled too by your people's representatives, not to pay off the national debt, but to pay a board of men no greater saints than your Wilkes. You say, we are overgrown in wealth—that's a mistake; for if a farmer here goes to a shop to buy iron, salt, or a coat, instead of a purse with cash in it, the merchant takes a wagon with some wheat or the like in it, to sell at what price the merchants please, and so pay for said goods, and since your board of customs set up here, our goals are filled with insolvent debtors, and our people begin heartily to make cloaths for themselves, now when it is almost too late, having already run ourselves deep in debt, for your fineries."

But why dont your Freeholders jointly, by proper instructions, charge and command their agents, or attorneys, who represent them in parliament, speedily to repeal these revenue acts, &c. which strip us of our dear and glorious liberties? Why did you vote in such members to destroy your trade and liberties? It is certain that if once we stoop to your parliament's arbitrary Admiralty Courts they have now sent us, and without our consent, attempt to make us pay them; the next thing will be to send us Bishop's Courts, and by a new revenue act, pull money out of our pockets to pay them too; and so they shall strip us as bare as they did the Britons in Charles the second's time; which God forbid!

Sir, we now possess, by the ineffable bounty of heaven, a sweet, tho' envied liberty; so that our poorest peasants can sit in their cottages and defy the world to deprive a tax of one farthing from them, without their consent; yes, we can now do more than all the Dukes in England can do; we can bid a bold and daring defiance to all the bishops on the globe, to erect a court within our provinces, or detain our stocks or fields for a tenth of our produce; but even your lofty parliament is shackled with, and tamely submits to their yearly incursions. Our just freedoms from these chains our fathers prayed, fought, bled and died for, and we hope God may pardon our sins, and not suffer your P—t to bereave us of them truly glorious liberties."

On the 30th ult. one Kelly, an off-sternman, Mitshner, a tavern keeper, and one or two more, having, it is said, made an information to the custom-house officers, which occasioned the seizure of a few casks of wine belonging to the mate of a vessel, and was, it is said, the whole savings he had made of three years wages; the populace being greatly incensed against the informers, five several days search, found and seized them, placed and tied them

In cars, and carried them through great part of the city, attended with many thousands of people, who buzz'd, insulted and treated them with the utmost indignity, often besmearing their faces and cloaths with tar and sprinkling them with feathers, so that they made a most hideous appearance, and certainly felt as infernal as they looked; and had no little reason to fear that their lives were in danger. However, they escaped without any other punishment, than being thus exhibited as public spectacles of scorn and derision. We hear the magistrates interposed, but were for some time unable to stop the cavalcade, till the populace had in some measure satiated their resentment.

Mr. GAINE,
The following Agreement you'll please to publish in your next Monday's Paper, it being entered into by the major part of the Merchants who have Goods lodged in the public Ware-houses in this city.
NEW-YORK, 21st September, 1769.
To Mr. JOSEPH ALLICOCKE,
SIR,

THE Goods that you have, or may be sent to your store by us the subscribers, are to remain there, and not to be taken out on any pretence whatever, until the arrival of some vessel with goods from England, that shall be shipped after the revenue act is repealed.

N. B. It is the true intent and meaning of us the subscribers, that in case any person or persons (who have shipped us, or either of us, any goods contrary to the true intent and meaning of all or either of the agreements subsisting among the merchants and traders of this city) shall give orders to have them shipped back to England, that we shall have the privilege of returning them; the foregoing agreement notwithstanding.

The Schooner Mary Ann, Captain Young, from Hispaniola for this port, on the 18th of August, at 11 o'clock at night, off Rum Key, was struck under the Larboard Counter by something, they supposed to be a wreck, which obliged the people to quit her in about half an hour, in their boats, the being full of water, in which they got to New Providence on the 23d of the same month.

Captain Saltus, from Bermuda, informs, that the Schooner King of Prussia, Captain Minos, from Charles-Town, is arrived at that Island, where she is getting a new Bottom, and would be ready to sail for Charles-Town some time this Month.

Captain Bingley, from Lisbon, on the 24th ult. in Long. 68, spoke a Brig, Captain Bailey, from South-Carolina for Falmouth, 27 Days out, who had sprung his Foremast in a Gale of Wind.

OCTOBER 22. On Saturday next the General Assembly of this Province meets here.

On Wednesday the 4th Instant, the Corporation lately erected in the Province of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen in the "Commission of the Church of England in America," consisting of the Episcopal Clergy, and several of the principal Gentlemen of the Laity, of the Provinces aforesaid, convened at Burlington, where, having prepared some Articles relative to their Institution, and presented an Address of Thanks to his Excellency Governor FRANKLIN, which he received and answered, in a very obliging Manner, they adjourned to this City, in order to have a Majority of Members, to settle their Plan, &c. And on Tuesday last, at 11 o'clock, the Corporation proceeded to CHURCH STREET, where an excellent, catholic, and truly pathetic Discourse, adapted to the Occasion, was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Smith, Provost of the College of Philadelphia, before a polite and attentive Auditory. After Service a generous Collection was made at the Church Door, for the Benefit of the Institution.

The Corporation then waited, in a Body, upon his Honour the Governor of this Province, with an Address of Thanks for the Readiness and Cheerfulness with which, upon their first Application, he had granted them a Charter: To which Address his Honour was pleased to return a kind Answer, and to favour them with his Company at Dinner: After which, several fundamental Laws and Constitutions, for the well-ordering and managing the Affairs of the Corporation, were framed and settled, 38 Members being present.

By Captain Biddle, from the Bay of Honduras, we learn, that Provisions were very scarce there; that he left in the Bay the Brig Grampus, Captain Savage, of this Port, near-ready for sailing for Bristol; Captain Rogers, for this Place; Captains Bryson, Benson, and 4 or 5 other New-Yorkers; and several Rhode-Islanders, whose Names he did not learn. On the 14th of September, in the Night, off of Cape Florida, he passed very near a Wreck, but could not discover what she was; the next Day he saw a Brig ashore on the Martiers; and on the 28th, off Cape-Hatteras, he spoke a Sloop, Captain Ball, from Antigua for North-Carolina; 25 Days out, all well.

By a Gentleman just arrived from London, we are informed that the Commissioners of the Customs were much incensed at the American Board, on Account of some Complaints which they had the Assurance to send Home against them to the Lords of the Treasury; and one of the principal Officers of the Customs told him just before he embarked, that by the Time he arrived in America, there would be Orders sent out to call those Gentlemen Home, to give Accounts of their Conduct, and God grant they may meet the Reward of their Iniquity.

Yesterday Morning a Number of the intrepid Sons of Neptune, fell in with an infamous Informer; they boarded him, and after ducking him in the River, they tarred and covered him with Feathers, and then led him with a Rope round his Body to the Pillory, in which they placed him for about a Quarter of an Hour, and after that paraded him through the City for a considerable Time, to the great Terror of all such infamous Scoundrels.

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) September 21.
Extract of a letter to a gentleman in London, from an eminent merchant in London, who resided many years in this colony, and upon the death of his partner removed with his family, all Virginians, to London, where he has prosecuted a very extensive business, to the mutual satisfaction and advantage of his numerous correspondents and clients. His sentiments are truly American, and he seems to breathe a fervent spirit of genuine freedom.

London, July 23, 1769.
I had, as you observe, heard of the dissolution of the assembly of Virginia, and with I had the honour of having my name recorded in the list to the resolves. I always did, and always will think those laws of taxation unjust and oppressive; and I highly applaud those who stood up bravely in defence of their country. We now, on this side, make as many protestations in that cause as Whigs in his, and I hope, at least, as good purposes; for it is my real opinion the laws will, nay must, be repealed at the opening of the next session of parliament. His Majesty has declared his desire is, that his American subjects should be made easy.

The ship Fortune, Kowntree, from London, bound to Maryland, is going up the Bay, in the late hurricane, was obliged to cut away her masts and come to an anchor, one of which she lost; and last Tuesday, in weighing, the windlass broke, which made it necessary to cut the cable, and she drove ashore to the northward of New-Point Comfort, in Gloucester County, and is entirely lost. There were 39 passengers on board, many of them tradesmen, labourers, &c. who propose following their several occupations in this colony, unless compelled to go to Maryland, to be sold there to pay for their passages.

A great many vessels have put into Norfolk, in distress, since the late storm; and we hear that some are drove ashore without the capes, and lost.

By some people from Augusta we learn, that the gale was hardly felt there, or in the counties adjoining.

We hear that a new vessel from Rappahannock, laden with wheat, was cast away upon the eastern shore, and the crew lost. Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend here, dated July 22, 1769.

"As to the political conduct of your country, you have the approbation of every Englishman; nor was your address to the King treated with that disrespect which had been shown on former like occasions. In short, the acts already past to the injury of America, are to be repealed, and no more such attempts for the future. This you may rely on, as I have such information as puts the truth of it beyond a doubt."

The following sad accident happened in Johnson County, North-Carolina, the latter end of July last. A Rattlesnake got into a house where four children were asleep on a pallet, and bit the youngest child, who, screaming out, alarmed the Father. He, in attempting to kill the snake, was bit himself, with the other three children, and they all died the next day.

September 23. At Smith's Point, in the mouth of Potowmack, seven vessels were drove ashore in the late storm, most of which are entirely lost, and one of them supposed to be Mr. William Black's schooner. Several dead bodies have been taken up, and chests, and trunks, containing genteel wearing apparel; and among the dead bodies there appeared to be two gentlemen and ladies, by their dress.

Yesterday afternoon returned home from the Northward, in good health, the Honourable PETER RABOLIN, Esq; late speaker, and our present worthy representative.

Two vessels from Antigua have been seized by the Collector here, for not making entry of certain Slaves imported in them. Information was lodged at his office.

From the BOSTON GAZETTE, Sept. 19, 1769.

To the PUBLISHER.

WHEREAS I the Subscriber did, on the 10th Day of last May, purchase of William Hambleton Scholar, a Bank Bill of England, and two private Bankers promissory Notes, to the Value of Fifty-one Pounds Ten Shillings Sterling; which Bills I did remit to my Correspondents at London, since which said Bank Bill, and Promissory Notes, have been publicly protested as absolute Forgeries, by GILES LOASE, principal Notary of the City of London: And I am therefore authorized and requested by the Governor of the Bank of England, to advertise said William Hambleton Scholar, as a notorious Cheat, and use my best Endeavours that he may be apprehended, and secured in any of His Majesty's Goals in America, that he may be brought to Justice.

The Company of Bankers also request the Publishers of the several News-Papers, through the several Provinces, to publish this Advertisement, as the Public are greatly interested in this Affair, as said William Hambleton Scholar has about fifty Bank Bills, all struck off of a Copper-Plate in the neatest Manner, and so near the true Ones, as to be hardly perceivable except by those who are used to them; and it is uncertain which Way he may travel, therefore it is presumed that the detecting so great a Villain, will be doing a great Service to the Public. He has been twice transported, and the last Time upon Pain of Death, if ever he returned. Yet had the consummate Impudence to pretend that he was Captain of a Brig, named the William and Mary; and that the was wrecked near New-York, also showed me a Certificate, signed by some Justice of the Peace belonging to New-York, whose Name I cannot remember, which is an entire Falshood, and the Names forged.

PHILIP FREEMAN, junior.
N. B. The said William Hambleton Scholar is a young Man, of about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 4 Inches high, wears his own Hair; when I purchased the Bills, he had only two Suits of Cloaths, the one a light mixed Broadcloth, trimmed with black, the other a Pompadour Colour, trimmed with the Colour of the Cloth.
